I. CALL TO ORDER

At 12:20pm, President Michael Schewel called the meeting to order and welcomed the group.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Royall and seconded by Mr. Rangarajan to approve the Minutes of the June 14, 2017 Full Board meeting as distributed. Motion approved.

II. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Mr. Schewel thanked the board members for attending the meetings in Bristol, VA, and he thanked James W. and Frances G. McGlothlin for hosting the board at The Olde Farm. He also thanked the new board members for their robust attendance at the meetings. Mr. Schewel then noted that the board recently met with candidate for Virginia Governor Ed Gillespie. He noted that the meeting was productive and informative and he especially thanked Ms. Martha Glasser who traveled from Virginia Beach to attend the meeting. Mr. Schewel stated that the meeting with candidate Ralph Northam is to be rescheduled as the previous date conflicted with events pertaining to events in Charlottesville, VA.
III. REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Mr. Alex Nyerges summarized the attendance figures for Yves Saint Laurent: The Perfection of Style. The exhibition was well attended by women as indicated in VMFA’s exit surveys of the exhibition. Also, the introduction of 2 for 1 date night tickets by Deputy Director for Marketing and Communications, Jan Hatchette, greatly improved the sales. Lastly, Director Nyerges noted that the $22 ticket cost, likely resulted in lower than expected turnout, and VMFA will change the ticket cost for the upcoming Terracotta Army exhibition. President Schewel asked if perhaps the museum was being too optimistic about its numbers for summer exhibitions to which Ms. Rupa Tak followed up with a question regarding fluctuating prices for extended hours on Fridays. Director Alex Nyerges noted that VMFA is looking into several scenarios regarding this. Ms. Tak also noted that the shop is wonderful and has many great things for children.

Mr. Nyerges then reported on the newly opened DigIt! education interactive space and also noted that VMFA recently hired a new Director of Membership, Kristine Craig. He stated that Kristine will give a report to the board at the December meetings that will detail VMFA’s membership plans. Mr. Nyerges then reported on VMFA’s involvement with a Chinese American Museum Alliance, which involvements between 10 to 15 American museums with the strongest collections of Chinese Arts as well as several large-scale Chinese Museums. The partnership met last June at AAMDM, and it will be important for VMFA’s reputation in the future as the museum prepares for Terracotta Army. Mr. Nyerges then noted that he was asked to serve on the honorary committee for La Biennale Paris 2017 and recently traveled to Paris for the event to help build VMFA’s brand and reputation internationally.

The Director reported on the recent opening of Hear My Voice, noting that the exhibition is stunning and it will be a model for how VMFA’s statewide exhibitions are presented and traveled across Virginia. He thanked the marketing, development, curatorial and registration teams for their hard work on the exhibition. Both Mr. Nyerges and Dr. Michael Taylor, VMFA’s Chief Curator and Deputy Director for Art and Education, noted the importance of the statewide exhibitions as evidenced by the event held the previous night at VMFA’s statewide partner the William King Art Museum in Abingdon, VA, which showcased another VMFA statewide exhibition – The Great War: Printmakers of WWI.

Mr. Nyerges then updated the board on VMFA’s involvement with a space study that Stephen Bonadies, Senior Deputy Director of Senior Deputy Director for Conservation and Collections, is leading in conjunction with the firm Cooper Robertson. Mr. Nyerges noted that a Capital Campaign would kick off soon to support future needs of the Museum, including additional space. Mr. Bonadies then updated the board on Cooper Robertson’s findings thus far. Mr. Hossein Sadid, Chief Financial Officer, also discussed the state of VMFA’s current facilities and the Pauley Parlor. Mr. Nyerges noted that the museum is working with Benefactor Group on the Capital Campaign and the case for support for the endowment and a feasibility study. The board then discussed space needs for a photography gallery, the nearby Benedictine Academy, special events spaces, and more. Ms. Martha Glasser asked whether or not the museum could project even further into the future, noting instead of imagining a 20 year plan, perhaps the museum could think even 50 years ahead. Mr. Schewel stated that the key to that is land as well as the acquisition of land while Mr. Satya Rangarajan argued that design will be a major gifting opportunity.
IV. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION

In the absence of Mr. H. Hiter Harris III (President of Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation), Mr. Schewel reported that Endowment funds continue to grow. The inflation rate is approximating strong and pairs well against appropriate indices, making for a good combination of risk and return. Additionally, he noted that an audit of the Foundation will be concluded shortly.

Mr. Sadid further reported that for the end of the month a record year is anticipated regarding net assets and he attributed this to the Foundation team and their hard work in 2017. Major priorities include the replacement of the Deputy Director for Advancement as it is a key role for the Capital Campaign.

V. COMMITTEE REPORTS

➢ External Affairs Committee

In the absence of Chair, Ken Johnson, Ms. Jayne Shaw, Director of Development, noted that the committee discussed an overview of fundraising, including for upcoming exhibitions such as the Masks of Congo. Next, Ms. Jan Hatchette, Deputy Director for Communications shared that the committee reviewed the marketing strategy for Yves Saint Laurent: The Perfection of Style and its recalibration to boost attendance numbers. She noted that they discussed the plans for Terracotta Army as well. President Schewel reminded the board that the numbers for both Yves Saint Laurent and Jasper Johns + Edvard Munch were both off from the projections.

➢ Fiscal Oversight Committee

President Schewel provided the report on the behalf of the Fiscal Oversight committee, stating that there was a $147,000 surplus for the previous fiscal year. The committee also discussed the status of the current budget and began review of the Human Resources scorecard. The scorecard discussion will continue in the December board meetings. He noted that a budget amendment was approved by the fiscal oversight committee for recommendation to the full board. This led to a discussion of how VMFA determines how much money to spend on marketing for each exhibition. Mr. Schewel then asked for a motion for the board to approve the budget amendments.

Motion: proposed by Mr. William A. Royall, Jr. and seconded by Mr. Steven A. Markel to approve the budget amendments for Congo Masks, Winter Antiques Show, and Schlumberger. Motion approved.

➢ Education Committee

Ms. Celeste Fetta, Director of Education, noted that the committee witnessed a demonstration of Evans 360°, VMFA’s Distance Learning Program. Evans 360° should help VMFA to continually reach over 1 million people every year. Ms. Anne Noland Edwards inquired regarding the ArtMobile. Dr. Taylor reported that preliminary meetings with RiggsWard the design team for the ArtMobile have been promising. The board then discussed the allocation and roll out of the ArtMobile to which Dr. Lee Anne Chesterfield, Senior Advisor for Museum Planning and Board Relations, replied the funding is in the Strategic Plan for the next fiscal year.
Art & Collections Committee

Vice Chair Tom Papa noted that Dr. Taylor reviewed the budget amendments that have been approved by the Fiscal Oversight Committee and the Full Board. He also stated that the meeting was informative with Dr. Peter Schertz, the Jack and Mary Ann Frable Curator of Ancient Art, reviewing his collections plan for Ancient Art.

Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee

Next, Dr. Michael Taylor reviewed the works for accessioning and adding to VMFA’s collection. He also discussed works that VMFA has “found in the collection” as well as others that the board might consider for formal accessioning and deaccessioning. He noted that the Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee approved and made these recommendations to the Full Board, and asked that the full board approve the works for both accessioning and deaccessioning at this time.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Royall and seconded by Mr. Schewel that the Board ratify the recommendation of Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee to accept the following purchases, gifts, deaccessions, and loans using the funds specified:
