Day 1: Depart U.S. for Sofia, Bulgaria

Day 2: Arrive Sofia We arrive in Bulgaria's capital and largest city today and transfer to our hotel. As guests' arrival times may vary greatly, we have no group activities or meals planned. Dinner tonight is on our own.

Day 3: Sofia We meet our fellow travelers and Odysseys Unlimited Tour Director at this morning's briefing about the journey ahead. Then we set out on a tour of this historic city, beginning with visits to the huge neo-Byzantine Alexander Nevsky Cathedral and the medieval Bulgarian Orthodox Boyana Church, a UNESCO site. Over lunch at a local restaurant, a historian will discuss the impact of Thracian-Roman culture on the region. We return to our hotel late afternoon; tonight, we enjoy a welcome dinner. B,L,D

Day 4: Sofia/Rila Today's excursion features the Rila Monastery, founded in the 10th century and rebuilt in the mid-19th century after a fire. A symbol of Slavic cultural identity, the monastery is now a UNESCO site. We return to Sofia late this afternoon. Tonight's dinner at a local restaurant features traditional folkloric music and dancing. B,L,D

Day 5: Sofia/Plovdiv En route today to Plovdiv, we stop along the way for a cooking class and lunch of Bulgarian specialties, including the local pastry-like bread banitsa. Then we continue on to Plovdiv, Bulgaria's cultural capital in the historical region of Thrace. Late afternoon, we reach our hotel and dine together tonight. B,L,D

Day 6: Plovdiv We set out this morning on a walking tour of Plovdiv's charming old town, with its cobbled streets and beautifully restored houses. Set on three of the city's seven hills, the old town features remnants of its Roman past, including the well-preserved theater (ca. 1st century CE), which can hold as many as 7,000 spectators and is still in use today. Following our tour and lunch in old town, the remainder of the day is free for independent exploration and dinner on our own. B,L

Day 7: Plovdiv/Nessebar/Varna (Black Sea) Today we travel to the Black Sea resort of Varna, stopping en route in Nessebar, "Pearl of the Black Sea" whose ancient city is a UNESCO site. While the site retains traces of its occupation by a variety of civilizations over the millennia, most of the ruins that we explore today date from the Hellenistic period. After time for lunch on our own here, we continue on to Varna and our hotel. We dine together tonight. B,D

Day 8: Varna At the same time modern and historic, Varna offers visitors a laid-back respite, as we see on this morning's tour. Highlights include the Roman baths and a visit to the Archaeological Museum, with more than 100,000 artifacts from Northern Bulgaria's multi-cultural past. Then the remainder of day is at leisure in this seaside resort, perhaps to stroll the landscaped grounds of the waterfront Sea Garden; visit Varna Cathedral, modeled after grand Peterhof palace in St. Petersburg; or simply to relax on the beach. B,D

Day 9: Varna/Bucharest, Romania Along the way to Romania today, we visit two Bulgarian UNESCO sites: the late 7th-century rock relief carving of a horseman on the Madara Plateau; and the Rock-Hewn Churches of Ivanovo (ca. 12th century), with their brightly-colored frescoes dating to the 14th century. We continue on to Bucharest, arriving late afternoon and dining together tonight. B,L,D

Day 10: Bucharest We see the highlights of the Romanian capital on our city tour that features a visit to the Soviet era 1,100-room Palace of Parliament, after the Pentagon the world's second largest government building. We also tour the National Village Museum, with Romanian monuments, buildings, and artifacts dating from the 17th to early 20th centuries. Dinner tonight is on our own in this lively city. B,L

Day 11: Bucharest Today we encounter two vibrant vestiges of Bucharest's once-thriving Jewish community:

Frescoes at Rila Monastery

the Coral Temple, a copy of Vienna's Great Synagogue; and Bucharest's Great (or Polish) Synagogue, built in 1847 and now the city's oldest remaining temple after most were destroyed during the Communist era. Following an afternoon free for independent exploration, tonight we enjoy dinner and a wine tasting at a local restaurant. B,D

Day 12: Bucharest/Sighisoara This morning we journey by train to Brasov, where we board a coach for the medieval walled town of Sighisoara in Romania's forested – and storied – Transylvania region. Upon arrival we take a walking tour of the Historic Centre, the best preserved in eastern Europe and a UNESCO site. Then we check in at our hotel and dine together tonight. B,D

Day 13: Sighisoara/Malancrav In nearby Biertan today, we visit the elaborate fortified church (ca. 15th century) then continue on to the early 14th-century storybook village of Malancrav, where we enjoy a traditional lunch cooked over an open fire. Back in Sighisoara, we have free time to enjoy this lovely town as we wish before tonight's private organ concert. Dinner is on our own. B,L

Day 14: Sighisoara/Brasov We depart this morning for the stunning medieval town of Brasov, ringed by mountain peaks and dense forests. Our city tour here includes the First Romanian School, a museum housing rare books and Romania's first printing press; and the famed Black Church, southeastern Europe's largest Gothic church. We check in at our hotel mid-afternoon and dine together tonight. B,L,D

Day 15: Brasov Legend comes to life today as we visit towered and turreted Bran Castle, built in the 14th century atop a 200-foot high rock and once believed to be the lair of Bram Stoker's fictional Count Dracula. We tour the castle, now a museum, then continue on to the fortified church of Prejmer. Along with the church and village we saw on Day 13, Prejmer is part of UNESCO's Transylvania historic site. After returning to Brasov late this afternoon, we're free for dinner on our own. B,L

Day 16: Brasov/Sinaia/Snagov/Bucharest Returning to Bucharest today, we stop in the mountain resort of Sinaia, "Pearl of the Carpathians," where we visit exquisite Peles Castle, former summer home of Romanian royalty. Then we head to Snagov Monastery, perched on a tiny island on a lake near Bucharest and, legend has it, burial site of infamous Vlad the Impaler, said to be the inspiration for fictional Count Dracula. We continue on to Bucharest, where tonight we toast our Balkans adventure at a farewell dinner. B,L,D

Day 17: Depart for U.S. We transfer to the Bucharest airport for our return flights to the U.S. B

Your final tour documents, including airline itineraries (with e-ticket numbers), will be available in the portal two to three weeks before departure.

Single Travelers

We welcome single travelers, and offer a limited number of single accommodations on each tour. Because hotel and cruise rates are priced by the room or cabin, the per person cost for accommodations occupied by one person is higher than that shared by two people. We will not charge a fee for any changes made to your reservation outside of 95 days before departure. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, or if you use a different passport than originally cited, you will be responsible for charges associated with the ticket's reissue.

Travel Documents

A passport valid for at least six months after the completion of your tour is required for U.S. citizens on all of our international tours. Health and Medical Issues

We welcome all travelers, but request that you be in good health to participate in an Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. tour. Air Transportation

Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. includes in its tour price round-trip economy air from designated gateway cities as shown and contracts with those airlines the company feels provide the level of service, routings, and value necessary for your entire trip. While another airline may offer a more direct connection, it may be at a price unavailable at the lower group rates. You will receive your preliminary air schedule approximately 2½ months prior to departure. Please note that seat assignment on your international flight is usually done at airport check-in. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. is unable to guarantee any seat assignments. Due to the nature of tour operator tickets, other restrictions apply, including, but not limited to, frequent flyer mileage accrual, stopovers, alternate travel dates, upgrades, and airline taxes and fees. If you prefer to make your own travel arrangements, booking the tour “Land Only” is available on most tours. If unforeseen circumstances require us to change a hotel, we will select alternative accommodations of the same or better quality.
