

VMFA Member Travel Programs for 2026

Updated 07.08.2025

The Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Member Travel Program brings together museum members at every level who share a desire for cultural enrichment and social engagement, as well as a spirit of discovery. The program was created more than thirty years ago to offer domestic and international excursions tailored to this unique community, drawn together by their membership in the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. We hope to increase the presence of VMFA in the lives of our members beyond the physical confines of our museum through experience with the origins of our collections, exposure to the cultures that gave life to these artistic expressions, and personal interactions with the dedicated museum staff who bring VMFA's treasures to the public. The VMFA Member Travel Program is designed to develop and strengthen the relationship between members and the museum. Our distinctive combination of cultural enrichment, fellowship and exceptional amenities distinguish the VMFA Member Travel Program from other commercially available tour offerings.

If you are not already a member of VMFA and wish to participate in a Member Travel program, you may join the museum online using our website at:

EXPLORING AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

January 7–28, 2026

22 days for $12,784 total price from Washington, DC

($12,095 air & land inclusive plus $689 airline taxes and departure fees)

Single supplement: $2,495; Land only: $10,795

Australia, New Zealand, and small group touring make for a perfect combination on this wide-ranging 22-day journey. Highlights in Sydney include a visit to the Art Gallery of New South Wales, now led by Michael Brand, former director of VMFA. Enjoy a catamaran cruise around Sydney Harbour; Featherdale Wildlife Park, where koalas roam; and the iconic Opera House. Fly to Uluru (Ayers Rock) and learn about the local Aboriginal culture during a dot painting experience with an Aboriginal artist, and watch the sun set over the fabled monolith. In Cairns visit beautiful Mossman Gorge and swim and snorkel at the colossal Great Barrier Reef during a day-long excursion. Traveling on to New Zealand, after touring Christchurch, the “Garden City,” see sheepdogs at a farm. Explore spectacular Mt. Cook National Park and take a cruise through Milford Sound's breathtaking fjords. Discover scenic Queenstown. In geothermal Rotorua, experience Maori culture at a traditional hangi dinner. The journey ends with sightseeing in vibrant Auckland, including a visit to the Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki where works from VMFA's Lewis Collection will be on view in Pop to Present: American Art from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Enjoy additional time in the “City of Sails” with an optional 3-day/2-night post-tour extension.

VIVA LA VIDA Exploring Frida Kahlo's Mexico City

January 10–16, 2026

6 days for $11,999 per person, double rate; plus air

$13,999 single rate; plus air

On this special VMFA-curated journey, travel to Mexico City with Dr. Sarah G. Powers, Exhibition Curator of Frida: Beyond the Myth and Curatorial Research Specialist in American Art. To understand Frida Kahlo, you must go to Mexico City—her home, her inspirations, her politics, her relationship with Diego Rivera are all there, embedded in the city's streets. Visit Casa Azul, the house where Frida was born, painted, and never completely left; the Museo Estudio Diego Rivera y Frida Kahlo, where Frida and Diego lived and worked in twin houses; the Palacio de Bellas Artes, to see Rivera's Man at the Crossroads, originally commissioned for Rockefeller Center. Also included will be visits to the Museo de Antropología, the Chapultepec Castle, and the ancient site of Teotihuacan, once the largest and most powerful city in North America. Visit the Zocalo, Mexico City's central plaza with a mix of pre-Columbian ruins and colonial architecture; and take a private tour focused on Mexico City's Jewish heritage, and how the community took root in Mexico City during the Spanish Inquisition. All this and much more! Enjoy six nights at the luxurious Four Seasons Mexico City.

From the breathtaking Amalfi Coast to eternal Rome, through the gentle Umbrian and Tuscan countryside to treasured Venice, this wide-ranging 16-day small group tour showcases ancient sites, contemporary life, priceless art, and unique accommodations. Begin on the storied Amalfi Coast, experiencing this stunning region by sea and by land and visiting Pompeii's exquisite ruins. Continuing on to the Eternal City for a three-night stay, tour the Colosseum, the Forum, monumental St. Peter's Square, and the sublime Sistine Chapel, and explore independently. Spend three nights in Italy's "green heart" of Umbria, enjoying a cooking demonstration in Orvieto and a visit to beloved Assisi. Journeying to alluring Tuscany, tour splendid Siena. Discover Florence, living monument to the Renaissance, and encounter classic Tuscany in the hill town of San Gimignano. Sample a local winery's offerings before concluding your tour in wondrous Venice. Savor more time in Venice with an optional 3-day/2-night post-tour extension.
