VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Member Travel

Dear Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to invite you to travel with VMFA Member Travel on a specially designed, art-focused trip to the Hudson River Valley at the height of autumnal splendor. With the assistance of our long-time travel partner, Academic Arrangements Abroad, we have planned an exciting itinerary that includes modern and contemporary art and sculpture, a visit to a special private collection, as well as iconic sites related to the Hudson River School of artists and American history. Dr. Leo Mazow, Louise B. and J. Harwood Cochrane Curator of American Art, will accompany us for the first portion of the trip.

This trip will include:

- One night at the historic Warwick Hotel, conveniently located in mid-town Manhattan
- Five nights at the Beekman Arms Delamater Inn, designated by the National Trust for Historic Preservation as the oldest landmark inn in America, in Rhinebeck, New York
- Planned visits to:
 - A visit to the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Art with Dr. Sylvia Yount, the Lawrence A. Fleischman Curator in Charge of the American Wing, and former Chief Curator at VMFA.
 - The boyhood home of Edward Hopper
 - Kykuit, the estate home to generations of the Rockefeller family
 - Dia: Beacon, the spectacular museum of contemporary art and sculpture
 - Boscobel, ca. 1804, the outstanding example of New York Federal domestic architecture
 - Storm King Art Center, devoted to the acquisition and exhibition of works by major artists of the 20th century and young artists of the 21st century
 - Cedar Grove, the Thomas Cole National Historic Site
 - Locust Grove, the 1851 Italianate villa designed for Samuel F.B. Morse
 - Olana, the estate of Frederic Edwin Church, with spectacular vistas, carefully landscaped grounds, and a 37-room mansion that contains many of Church's paintings
 - Springwood, the Roosevelt mansion in Hyde Park
 - A special visit to the private home and collection of a VMFA Patron and former director;
- Breakfast each day, 3 lunches and 2 dinners, including dinner at the Culinary Institute of America
- Private motor coach transportation with unlimited water

The trip is attractively priced and is limited to no more than 25 guests, so don't delay to book your spot! If you are interested in this trip, please return the attached completed reservation form with your deposit as soon as possible to Academic Arrangements Abroad. Registrations will be accepted first-come, first-served. Single spaces are very limited.

With warm regards,

SCHEDULE BY DAY

- September 30 NEW YORK CITY R
Saturday Arrive independently to New York City and check in this afternoon at the Warwick Hotel. Explore New York’s world-class art galleries and museums at leisure. Gather this evening for a welcome reception with and cocktails and hors d’oeuvres.
- October 1 NEW YORK / HUDSON VALLEY / RHINEBECK B D
Sunday After breakfast at the hotel, depart for the Metropolitan Museum where we will be greeted by Dr. Sylvia Yount, the Lawrence A. Fleischman Curator in Charge of the American Wing, and former Chief Curator at VMFA. After a tour of the American Wing with Sylvia, there will be free time at the museum for lunch on your own and to explore the museum. Afterwards, drive north along the Hudson Valley to Nyack for a visit to the Edward Hopper House, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Afterwards, we are specially invited to nearby Ossining to the beautiful home and gardens of a VMFA patron and former board member for tea and a personal tour of his impressive art collection. Then we continue to Rhinebeck and check in for a five-night stay at the Beekman Arms and Delamater Inn. Dinner at the hotel’s Wayfarer Room.
- October 2 HUDSON VALLEY B L
Monday After a lecture at the hotel, drive to Springwood, the Roosevelt mansion in Hyde Park. Continue to Locust Grove, an 1851 Italianate villa designed for artist and telegraph inventor Samuel F. B. Morse. Enjoy a private lunch and guided tour of its early 19th-century furnishings and paintings by the Hudson River School. Spend the afternoon amidst the splendor of the Gilded Age at the Vanderbilt Mansion at Hyde Park, one of the valley’s oldest estates. Return to Rhinebeck for an evening at leisure.
- October 3 HUDSON VALLEY B L
Tuesday Today is devoted to the upper historic Hudson River Valley. Begin with a tour of Olana, former home of Hudson River School artist Frederic Edwin Church, who selected Calvert Vaux to design this distinctive home’s mix of Victorian architectural elements and Middle-Eastern decorative motifs. There will be free time to explore the town of Catskill. In the afternoon, see artist Thomas Cole’s former residence on a tour of Cedar Grove. Return to Rhinebeck.
- October 4 HUDSON VALLEY B L
Wednesday After a morning lecture, visit Boscobel, where we will view its important collection of furniture and decorative arts from the Federal period. Cross the Hudson to Storm King Art Center for lunch and take a guided tour of its outdoor sculptures and site-specific commissions by dozens of artists including Alexander

Calder, Mark di Suvero, and Richard Serra. Afterwards we go back across the river to visit Dia:Beacon, the contemporary art museum with works of art from the 1960's to the present. Return to Rhinebeck for leisure time and dinner on you own.

October 5
Thursday

HUDSON VALLEY

B D

Today we have two special visits planned. First, we will visit Edgewater, a private residence and historic Hudson Valley home and art collection. After lunch on our own, we will view the galleries of leading Hudson River School artists at the Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center at Vassar College. Return to Rhinebeck for some free time. Our Farewell Dinner is at the Culinary Institute of America, which has set the standard for excellence in professional culinary education for over six decades.

October 6
Friday

HUDSON VALLEY / TARRYTOWN / NEW YORK

We will check out of the hotel, and then spend the morning at Kykuit, the stunning hilltop home to four generations of the Rockefeller family, and admire the extensive art collections and beautiful gardens overlooking the Hudson River. Also visit the Union Church of Pocantico Hills adorned with windows designed by Matisse and Chagall and commissioned by the Rockefellers in the 1950s and 1960s. We depart for Manhattan from Tarrytown and transfer to New York Penn Station, where the trip concludes. A box lunch will be provided.

*The Beekman Arms Delamater Inn is located in Rhinebeck, NY, which is the most desirable location for a trip to the Hudson River. The hotel accommodations are dated and modest, but are considered to be the best available in the area.

Please note: This preliminary itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of VMFA Member Travel and Academic Arrangements Abroad. All prices quoted are based on prevailing rates in effect as of the date of this proposal and are subject to change without notice. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are at the expense of the individual. While the tour operator will do every-thing possible to maintain the published trip price, it may be necessary to institute a surcharge. Reservations are subject to Terms & Conditions.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY & COSTS The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of Virginia Museum of Fine Arts (VMFA) and AAA. All prices quoted are based on prevailing rates in effect at time of brochure printing and are subject to change without notice. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are not permitted.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAUSE The participation of VMFA is limited to educational sponsorship of the program described in this brochure (The Program). AAA acts only as an agent for the participant with respect to transportation, accommodations, and all other services, relating to The Program. AAA, VMFA, and/or their agents assume no responsibility or liability for any act, error, or omission, or for any injury, loss, accident, delay, or irregularity that may be occasioned by reason of any defect in any aircraft, ship, train, bus, or other carrier, or through neglect or default of any subcontractor or other third party, which may be used wholly or in part in the performance of their duty to the participants of The Program. The passage ticket issued by the carrier is the sole contract between the participant and the carrier. Nor will AAA or VMFA and/or their agents be responsible for loss, injury, damages, or expenses to persons or property, due to illness, weather, strikes, local laws, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature, or other such causes in connection with The Program or anything beyond their reasonable control. AAA is not responsible for transportation or other program delays and changes, nor additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or well-being of the participants, or for any reason whatsoever, to alter the itinerary at any time, without notice to the participants, such alterations will be made without penalty to AAA or VMFA. Additional expenses, if any, shall be borne by the participants. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the participant at all times. AAA and VMFA reserve the right to accept or decline any person as a participant at any time, or to require any participant to withdraw from The Program at their own expense when such an action is determined by AAA or VMFA to be in the best interest of the participant's health and safety, or the general welfare of the other participants.

CANCELLATION POLICY All cancellations must be made in writing to the offices of AAA and are subject to a $350 non-refundable administrative fee. All refunds are limited to amounts actually received by AAA and are the sole responsibility of AAA; VMFA shall have no liability for refunds. At the time AAA receives written notification of cancellation, the following cancellation charges will apply: cancellations received between 90 and 61 days before departure, 50 percent of the program cost per person; no refunds will be given for cancellations received within 60 days of departure. No refunds are given for cancellation on or after the day of departure, or for unused portions of the tour, for any reason. Air cancellation charges, if any, will be assessed in accordance with airline regulations. All group fare tickets must be issued no less than 30 days prior to departure. NOTE: Neither AAA nor VMFA shall be liable for any airline cancellation penalties incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable ticket. In the case of a cancellation due to shortage of participants, AAA will attempt to notify all participants at least 45 days prior to departure. However, AAA reserves the right to cancel The Program prior to departure for any reason and, in such case, reimbursement of refundable costs of the trip by AAA shall constitute full settlement with the participant. In the unlikely event that a dispute arises between a participant and AAA or VMFA the following conditions will apply: (a) the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in New York, NY; (b) the dispute will be governed by New York Law; (c) the maximum amount of recovery to which a participant shall be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of all monies actually received from the participant by AAA. The participant agrees that this is a fair and reasonable limitation on the damages, of any sort whatsoever, that a participant may suffer. Upon payment of the deposit to AAA, the participant agrees to be bound by the above terms and conditions.
