VIRGINIA MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Hudson River Valley

Artistic Legacy & Splendid Estates

With guest curator Dr. Susan J. Rawles

Associate Curator of American Painting and Decorative Art

September 29–October 5, 2018

Dear Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to invite you to travel with VMFA Member Travel on a specially designed, art-focused trip to the Hudson River Valley at the height of autumnal splendor. With the assistance of our long-time travel partner, Academic Arrangements Abroad, we have planned an exciting itinerary that includes modern and contemporary art and sculpture, and visits to a special private collection, as well as to iconic sites related to American history and the Hudson River School of artists and American history. Dr. Susan J. Rawles, Associate Curator of American Painting and Decorative Art, will accompany us for the first portion of the trip.

We begin with an overnight stay in New York City and a visit to The Metropolitan Museum of Art, home to a renowned collection of Hudson River School paintings. Then drive north along the Hudson where, over several days, we will visit stunning estates including the former homes of Frederic Edwin Church and his teacher, Thomas Cole, at Olana and Cedar Grove; to Ossining, for an exclusive tour of the private home and collection of a VMFA patron and former board member. Enter the residences of the Hudson River School's founding painters, Frederic Edwin Church and his teacher, Thomas Cole, at Olana and Cedar Grove; We will also discover the private side of an American political dynasty at Springwood, the Roosevelt mansion in Hyde Park, and admire the wonderful art collections and gardens at Kykuit, the stunning hilltop home to four generations of Rockefellers. Other exceptional properties on our itinerary include the private home and collection of a VMFA patron and former board member; Boscobel, the elegant, 200-year-old Federal mansion; and Locust Grove, the Italianate villa designed for artist and telegraph inventor Samuel F. B. Morse.

Our historic accommodations are at the Warwick Hotel in midtown Manhattan and the Beekman Arms Delamater Inn, which has been in continuous operation since 1766. (Although the Beekman's accommodations are modest, they are the best available in the area, and the inn's location—the charming village of Rhinebeck—is ideal for a Hudson River trip.) We will also savor farm-fresh cuisine at the Culinary Institute of America, where the nation's foremost chefs are trained, and view contemporary art in inspired natural settings at Dia:Beacon and Storm King Art Center. And much more!

This trip is attractively priced and limited to 25 guests, with just a few spaces available for singles. I hope you will join us as we uncover the many elegant charms of the historic Hudson River Valley.

With warm regards,

Adele "Hutch" Livingston
VMFA Coordinator of Member Travel

TRAVELING WITH YOU
