III. MINUTES APPROVAL

Motion: Proposed by Ms. Allston and seconded by Mr. Ken Dye to approve the minutes of the June 12, 2024 quarterly Board of Trustees meeting as distributed. Motion carried.

IV. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION PREIDENT

Ms. McGee reported the Foundation's priorities include building financial support for the museum, investing and stewardship of the endowment, strategically deploying assets to strengthen the museum in support of its mission (such as the planned art storage facility and current search for an Outsourced Chief Investment Officer (OCIO)), and to building a board of directors which represents the geographic, industry and cultural diversity of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

V. BEST PRACTICES FOR AGENCY TRUSTEES

Virginia Chief Senior Assistant Attorney General Deb Love led an annual review of the statutory duties and requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. Ms. Love concluded her presentation with a summary of proposed amendments to the Trustee Bylaws which take FOIA updates into account. A draft of the proposed amendments to the Trustee ByLaws was circulated prior to today's meeting.

Motion: Proposed by Ms. Anne Noland Edwards seconded by Mr. Michel Zajur to amend the VMFA Board of 'Trustee' Bylaws, as proposed in the draft language previously distributed. Motion carried.

VI. REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

VMFA Director and Chief Executive Officer Alex Nyerges provided an overview of Fiscal Year 2024 (FY24). Highlights included 511,000 general museum visitors, 901,000 statewide program attendees, a $53.3 million operating budget, and more than 107,000 visitors attended the Samurai Armor from the Collection of Ann and Gabriel Barbier Mueller exhibition. Looking to FY25, he shared national media coverage for the museum's upcoming exhibitions: American, born Hungary: Kertész, Capa, and the Hungarian American Photographic Legacy and A Long Arc: Photography and the American South since 1845 and discussed two upcoming ones: Frida, Beyond the Myth and The Impressionist Revolution: Monet to Matisse from the Dallas Museum of Art. Mr. Nyerges next provided an update on VMFA's campaign and expansion, noting that both are making great progress with the campaign at nearly $360 million. He recognized and thanked Campaign Co-Chairs Mr. John Staelin and Ms. Elizabeth Locke for an additional significant gift to the campaign. Ms. Allston thanked Mr. Nyerges for his report and recognized Mr. Nyerges and Kathryn Gray for their $1 million pledge to the capital campaign.

VII. COMMITTEE REPORTS

A. Art and Collections Committee

Committee Chair Melinda Hardy reported that at the committee's recent meeting, Dr. Michael Taylor, VMFA Artistic Director and Chief Curator, presented an overview of the upcoming exhibitions, Frida, Beyond the Myth and The Impressionist Revolution: Monet to Matisse from the Dallas Museum of Art. He also shared results of the museum's collection strategy for the 2021-2026 strategic plan and noted the recent recruitment of Siera Hyte, the inaugural VMFA Schiller Family Curator of Indigenous American Art.
