THE FRANCENA T. HARRISON FOUNDATION TRUST

managed by Deutsche Bank Trust Company, N.A., is proud to support the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts as the presenting sponsor of the Fine Arts & Flowers 2016 exhibition.

Honoring the legacy of former Richmonder, Mrs. Francena
T. Harrison, Fine Arts & Flowers reflects fully Mrs. Harrison's passion for beautiful gardens and the inspiration she drew from being an avid gardener in her lifetime.

From the Director of VMFA

Welcome to Fine Arts & Flowers at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Conceived by The Council of VMFA in 1987, this biennial exhibition of dramatic and thought-provoking floral designs brings together creative members of The Garden Club of Virginia, the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, and Garden Clubs of Virginia to interpret works in VMFA's permanent collection of art from around the world, from antiquity to the 21st century.

We extend our deepest appreciation to Edie Hofstead Cabaniss for serving as honorary chair of Fine Arts & Flowers 2016 and to co-chairs Cammy Carleton and Ann Lagos for their nearly two years of organizing and planning this eagerly anticipated event. They have skillfully drawn together an extraordinary group of Council members, other museum volunteers, and VMFA staff to execute a list of responsibilities ranging from the expected to the unusual. Our thanks also go to the sponsors and patrons of Fine Arts & Flowers 2016, most especially to Strange's Florists, official supplier of exhibition flowers and plant materials since 1987.

In 2014, proceeds from Fine Arts & Flowers special events supported the digitization of the Fabergé collection. This year's proceeds support the new Fabergé and Russian Decorative Arts Galleries. Traveling since 2012, the Fabergé collection has returned home, and VMFA reveals the new galleries to the general public October 22.

Throughout these four days, I invite you to attend the lectures by event florists, Shane Connolly and Ariella Chezar, the Marble Hall luncheons and fashion show, the flower-arranging workshops led by Richmond's David Pippin, an edible-flowers event with VMFA Chef de Cuisine Greg Haley, docent-guided tours, and shopping for floral-inspired gifts in the VMFA Shop. We hope you enjoy it all!

From the Co-Chairs Fine Arts & Flowers 2016

The Council of VMFA welcomes you to the 13th Fine Arts & Flowers. We invite you to stroll the galleries to behold the beauty of floral interpretations of works in the VMFA collection. These magnificent floral designs, created by garden club members from across Virginia, celebrate the artworks that inspired them. The Council is grateful for the continued support of The Garden Club of Virginia, Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, and Garden Clubs of Virginia for making this extraordinary exhibition possible.

We thank the Fine Arts & Flowers 2016 committee members for their tireless commitment and countless volunteer hours. VMFA staff members, have consistently given us their time, guidance, and support. We are indebted to them and to the many docents and community volunteers for their valuable contributions.

Cammy Carleton and Ann Lagos
Co-Chairs, Fine Arts & Flowers 2016
The Council of VMFA

Edie Cabaniss, Honorary Chair

A Special Note of Appreciation

Edie Hofstead Cabaniss, honorary chair of Fine Arts & Flowers 2016, has been a special friend, a steadfast volunteer, and a generous donor to VMFA since the 1970s, when she moved to Richmond from Nashville, Tennessee. A Junior League placement brought her to VMFA where she trained as a docent and soon developed an enduring passion for the museum and its Fabergé collection. Thus it is wonderfully appropriate that the Fine Arts & Flowers Gala Preview, Fabergé in Bloom, celebrates the opening of VMFA's new Fabergé and Russian Decorative Arts Galleries, which will proudly display Edie's name in appreciation for her generosity. In addition to her longstanding support of VMFA, which includes a contribution to this year's Fine Arts & Flowers, Edie has participated in numerous philanthropic projects in Richmond. She has raised two sons and now enjoys spending time with her grandchildren, as well as traveling.

It is with grateful hearts that we dedicate Fine Arts & Flowers 2016 to Edie Cabaniss.

— Cammy and Ann

We're proud to sponsor the VMFA and Fine Arts & Flowers 2016 exhibit. A special thank you to the The Garden Club of Virginia, the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, and Garden Clubs of Virginia for bringing together some of nature's most beautiful pieces of art.

A DIFFERENT TALE TO TELL

Since 2003, we have shopped the world for the rare, the beautiful and the innovative and have brought these treasures and their compelling stories to our customers. Our jewelry, watches, handbags and collectibles have been thoughtfully selected to deliver classic and refined style with uncompromising value.

At Stauer we believe everyone deserves to treat themselves without getting hit with an outrageous price tag. In order to give our customers the very best possible value, we keep our costs low. We've cut out the middleman and go directly to the source, use our own designers and forgo fancy shops and flashy advertising. Not being over our heads in overhead means we can pass amazing savings onto our customers.

We are all living our own story, it is our goal to add a little sparkle and shine to yours.

DOCENT-GUIDED TOURS OF EXHIBITION HIGHLIGHTS
$15/Tour

These 50-minute docent-guided gallery tours offer insights into both the works of art and their floral interpretations. Tours meet in the Atrium and include approximately 15 selected stops. Tours begin every 15 minutes during these time periods:

THU, OCT 20, & FRI, OCT 21	SAT, OCT 22
9:30–9:45 am, 1:30–2:45 pm	10:30 am–2:45 pm
	SUN, OCT 23
	2–2:45 pm

The Docent committee, which includes VMFA touring docents as well as Council members, assists in every stage of the Fine Arts & Flowers exhibition. To help floral designers in planning, the committee provides concise descriptions of the artworks selected for interpretation. During the exhibition, docents organize and lead tours of exhibition highlights. Docent committee: Mimi Ryland, chair; Suzanne Bristow, editor; Julia Allred; Martha Broughton; Celeste Johnston; Christy Moran; Siv Ranko; Sarah Rasich; Theresa Singleton; Jackie Wilkins.

10 AM GUEST SPEAKER SHANE CONNOLLY, LONDON
Leslie Cheek Theater | $35

“Designing Fall Flowers and Foliage”

With deep respect for British custom, tradition, and the environment, and a love of flora, Shane Connolly creates memorable moments for a discrete clientele. Both an artisan florist and “full-set” event designer in England and beyond, Connolly is internationally celebrated for his exquisite design of the weddings of Charles, Prince of Wales and Camilla, Duchess of Cornwall, and Prince William and Catherine, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge.

Born and raised in Northern Ireland and trained by London's leading designers, Connolly has for 25 years designed one-off, bespoke events with a small team of florists, artists, and craftsmen, and has been awarded a Royal Warrant of Appointment to HRH The Prince of Wales.

Whether fabricating orange trees, designing floral arrangements to embrace light fixtures, or delicately gracing an intimate affair, Connolly maintains an understated style that has garnered an unparalleled reputation. His latest book, A Year in Flowers, may be purchased in the VMFA Shop during Fine Arts & Flowers.
www.shaneconnolly.co.uk

Mr. Connolly's program is generously sponsored by Peg Freeman and Ralph Crosby in memory of Joan Crosby, founding Chair of Fine Arts & Flowers in 1987.

Purchase a ticket for the opportunity to take home a floral arrangement created during the speaker presentation. Tickets will be sold in the theater before the program.

NOON MARBLE HALL LUNCHEON
$40

A seated luncheon in the Marble Hall, sumptuously decorated in imperial style for Fine Arts & Flowers. The select three-course menu includes complimentary wine, with vegetarian and gluten-free options available. Informal modeling of jewelry and accessories from the VMFA Shop.

EDIBLE FLOWERS

Claiborne Robertson Room | $40

Chef de Cuisine Greg Haley, of VMFA's Amuse Restaurant, presents a visual and culinary extravaganza of floral delicacies in the charming Claiborne Robertson Room overlooking the Robins Sculpture Garden. Taste blossoms, herbs, wines, and floral teas as Haley reveals the secrets of incorporating local floral ingredients into menus at home.

Preparation of Haley's sweet and savory menu items, including shrimp with pickled petals and chocolate rose truffles, will be discussed. Each participant will receive edible-flower recipes.

GUEST SPEAKER ARIELLA CHEZAR, NEW YORK

Leslie Cheek Theater | $35

"A Celebration of Color"

Ariella Chezar discovered her inherent passion for the beauty and drama of the natural world in a childhood full of color and creativity. Today she is renowned for her unique farmer-forager approach to floral design. Inspired by the abundant flora of the San Francisco Bay Area, where a wild vine, fruit on a branch, or a fresh sprig outside the door often added the finishing touch to her sought-after floral and event creations, Chezar and her husband founded Zonneveld Farm in Columbia County, New York, where they harvest sustainably grown flowers for her spectacular designs.

A naturalist at heart, she seeks out local, seasonal flowers to create the most robust, colorful, and lasting arrangements. Designer, farmer, teacher, author, Chezar recently authored The Flower Workshop, which will be for sale in the VMFA Shop during Fine Arts & Flowers 2016. www.ariellaflowers.com

FLOWERS IN FASHION LUNCHEON AND FASHION SHOW

Marble Hall | $45

The Council of VMFA and the Department of Fashion Design and Merchandising of Virginia Commonwealth University present Flowers in Fashion. The select three-course luncheon menu includes complimentary wine, with vegetarian and gluten-free options available. After lunch, attendees will enjoy a presentation of student-designed and student-modeled attire featuring casual to evening wear. Two scholarships, funded by previous Fine Arts & Flowers chairs, will be awarded to the winning designers. Contributors are Judy Binns, B.J. Durrill, Annabel Edge, Anne Grigg, Norma Jean Joyner, Virginia Maloney, Wyckie McClure, Mary Melton, Charlotte Minor, Pam Palmore, Mimi Ryland, and Lisa Wood.

Lisa Schaffner, noted broadcaster and public relations director, will serve as mistress of ceremonies. Music will be provided by harpist Rickie Denton. Judges for the fashion show are Dr. Mitchell Merling, Pam Reynolds, and Pam Royall. Hairstyles and make up are courtesy of stylists from JAK Salon.

Thanks to the Flowers in Fashion committee: Karen Palen, chair; Kathy Gasperini; Sharon Pederson; and Debra Stoss; and special thanks to Karen Videtic, Professor Emeritus; Deidra Arrington, Assistant Professor; Patricia Brown, Chair, VCU Department of Fashion Design and Merchandising; and Mason Shuck, VCU Student Director.
