

Please help us to protect the art and make the museum a pleasant experience for all visitors by following these simple rules.

- Cameras and videos are permitted in our permanent collection areas only. Sorry, no tripods, flash, or artificial light allowed. No photographs or video are permitted in special exhibition galleries.
- Food, beverages, candy, and gum are not allowed in the galleries.
- Shopping bags, backpacks, baby backpack carriers, umbrellas, and all purses, briefcases, or packages larger than 16 x 13 x 8 inches must be checked at the Coat Room (off the Atrium).
- Individual artists, classes, or groups of up to 50 people are welcome to sketch in our permanent collection galleries only. Sketching is not allowed in special, temporary, or loan exhibitions. Use pencils only, on drawing pads no larger than 18 x 24 inches. For more information, call Tour Services at 804.340.1419.
- Visitors are asked not to touch works of art in the museum. Even the slightest fingerprint contains chemicals that endanger even the hardest surfaces.
- Free Wi-Fi is available in the museum and Sculpture Garden. To connect, select the VMFA Guest network and accept terms of service.
- For more information, please phone 804.340.1405 or visit the VMFA website.
